

Advertisement for Research Associate

Applications are invited from curious and motivated researchers for a research associate positions at IIT Gandhinagar to work with Dr. Sriram Kanvah (<https://sites.google.com/view/chromophores-srirams-lab/home>) on the "Synthesis of solvatochromic probes for bacterial detection" - a SERB sponsored project. Apart from the research pursued at IIT Gandhinagar, the research associates are also encouraged to assist with teaching and departmental activities and assist fellow colleagues.

Duration: Three Years but the appointment is renewed each year after due assessment.

Due date: 30th January 2023

Remuneration: Rs 47000 (+ HRA as per the rules)

Desired Qualifications:

The applicant must have demonstrated skills of strong synthetic organic chemistry and characterization knowledge of IR, NMR, and Mass and the applicants should have publications in peer-reviewed journals.

Interested Candidates may upload their application (online) with curriculum vitae including at least two references, the best paper of their publications, and a summary of their doctoral research to the link below

<https://forms.gle/WyD2JmWiLyYDUkt47>

The shortlisted candidates shall be intimated and will be asked to give a technical presentation of their Ph.D. research and research interests. The dates of the interview shall be intimated only to the shortlisted candidates.

Last date of Receipt of Applications: 30th January 2023