(12) Mere eligibility will not entitle any candidate for being called for recruitment process. The decision of the Institute in all matters will be final. No correspondence will be entertained from the candidates in connection with the process of selection/ interview. Canvassing in any manner would entail disqualification of the candidature.

(13) NID MP reserves the right to restrict number of candidates to be called for selection process/Interview by short-listing the applications based on higher benchmarks or criteria as may be decided by the Institute. If the number of applicants for a particular post is large, the Institute reserves the right to call only the requisite number of candidates for selection process after shortlisting with reference to the candidates' qualification, suitability, relevant experience, desirable qualifications/experience etc.

(14) Candidates will be allowed to appear in the recruitment/selection process on the basis of the information/documents furnished by them in their application form. They are, therefore, advised to ensure that they fulfil all the eligibility conditions before applying. In case, it is found at a later stage that the information furnished by the candidate is false or the candidate does not fulfil eligibility conditions the candidature of such a candidate will be cancelled and no correspondence in this regard will be entertained. Issuance of Admit Card for the selection process will not confer any right for appointment.

(15) NID MP reserves the right to reject or accept the candidature of any candidate at any stage. The Institute reserves the right to cancel/ restrict/enlarge/modify/alter the recruitment process, if need arises, without issuing any further notice or assigning any reason thereof.

(16) NID MP reserves the right to extend the closing date for receipt of applications and also reserves the right to postpone/cancel the recruitment exercise for any/all the posts at any stage. The Institute reserves the right not to fill the posts herein advertised in case of non-availability of suitable candidate(s).

(17) In case of any inadvertent mistake/error in the process of selection which may be detected at any stage even after the issue of offer of appointment, NID MP reserves the right to withdraw/ cancel/ modify any communication made to the candidate.

(18) In case after appointment, any information given/declaration by the candidate is found to be false or if the candidate has willfully suppressed any material information relevant to the appointment, he/she will be liable to be removed from the service and any action taken as deemed fit by the appointing authority.

(19) Candidates must be in sound health. If selected, they must be prepared to undergo such medical examination and satisfy such medical authority as Institute may require before joining NID MP service as per the Government of India norms.

(20) All information submitted in the application will be verified with original documents at the time of verification of documents. If any information provided by the candidate is found to be false or incorrect or not in conformity with the eligibility criteria, then his/her candidature is liable to be rejected/cancelled at any stage of the recruitment process.

(21) Police verification of the selected candidates shall be done as per the latest instructions issued by the Govt of India. In case the police verification is received as negative, the contract/engagement of the individual shall cease to exist with immediate effect without any notice.

(22) The Institute can terminate the Contract at any time providing three month's notice to the individual or three month's pay in lieu of three-month notice period. The individual can also resign/ seek termination of the contract upon giving three month's notice to the Institute.

(23) All modification/amendment shall be displayed on NID MP official website only at www.nidmp.ac.in under the careers section. Therefore, candidates are requested to check the website for modifications/amendment, if any, before appearing for the selection process.

(24) Once applied, the applicants are advised to check the NID MP official website as well as their own registered e-mail regularly for any updates. Any Corrigendum/Addendum/Notification pertaining to this recruitment advertisement shall be published on NID MP official website only.

(25) All the appointments are for full-time commitment and subject to verification of caste certificates, credentials, academic qualifications, experience, conduct, medical fitness followed by police verification of the selected candidates. During the period of Institute service, if NID MP, on its verification, finds any discrepancy in the claims made by the candidate, besides departmental proceedings, suitable legal action shall also be initiated as per Government of India Rules.

(26) The Institute reserves the right to conduct Written Test, Presentation, Interviews etc. (one or more of these methods) as considered appropriate for shortlisting and selection. No TA/DA will be paid for appearing in the Selection Process.

(27) List of eligible/provisionally eligible/shortlisted candidates for participating in the selection process will be displayed only on NID MP website. No separate communication/intimation in this regard shall be made by the Institute.

(28) NID MP will retain data of online applications received from non-shortlisted candidates only for a period of six months after completion of recruitment process i.e. the issuance of offer letter to the selected candidate. Thereafter, No RTI on the subject shall be entertained.

(29) The Institute will further notify/inform the methodology of the selection process/Interview etc. to the eligible/provisionally eligible/shortlisted candidates.

(30) Any legal proceedings in respect of any matter of claim or dispute arising out of this advertisement can be instituted in Bhopal and courts/ Tribunals/ forums at Bhopal only shall have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to try any such cause/disputes.
